

SALT LAKE CITY ORDINANCE
No. 63 of 1990

(Recognition of SLACC and Neighborhood Organizations)

AN ORDINANCE AMENDING TITLE 2 OF THE SALT LAKE CITY CODE BY ADDING A NEW CHAPTER 2.60.010 ET SEQ., DEALING WITH RECOGNITION OF NEIGHBORHOOD BASED ORGANIZATIONS.

WHEREAS, the City Council of Salt Lake City, Utah, believes it important that the City obtain input and information concerning decisions affecting residents from locally established neighborhood organizations; and

WHEREAS, such input and information should come through a regularly established process by which geographical areas of the City may be identified for purposes of formulating and presenting recommendations on actions within the City which affect that geographical area; and

WHEREAS, the City acknowledges the vital roles that neighborhood organizations play in improving the quality of life for Salt Lake City residents and visitors; and

WHEREAS, the City desires to extend official recognition to Salt Lake City's community councils, neighborhood councils and associations, and the Salt Lake Association of Community Councils; and

WHEREAS, such neighborhood-based organizations should be encouraged and permitted to recommend actions, policy or plans to the City on matters affecting the livability of their neighborhoods or the City as a whole; and

WHEREAS, the neighborhood-based organizations are encouraged to assist City agencies in determining priority needs of their neighborhoods including master planning and ordinances; and

WHEREAS, such neighborhood-based organizations should follow clear processes within the organization for presenting their input to the City; and

WHEREAS, the Mayor and the City Council are encouraged to schedule regular meetings with recognized neighborhood-based organizations; and

WHEREAS, the Mayor and the City Council intend to provide through the City's budget process for reasonable assistance to such neighborhood-based organizations; and

WHEREAS, the City intends to encourage City departments, especially including the Department of Community and Economic Development to work with the neighborhood-based organizations;

THEREFORE, be it ordained by the City Council of Salt Lake City, Utah:

Section 1 Chapter 2.60.010 Et Seq. be enacted to read as follows:

CHAPTER 2.60

SLACC AND NEIGHBORHOOD-BASED ORGANIZATION RECOGNITION

Section 2.60.010 Purpose.

It is the policy of Salt Lake City to recognize neighborhood-based community organizations for the purpose of providing citizen input and information to various City planning and administrative services. This chapter provides a process for such recognition.

Section 2.60.020 Recognition of SLACC and neighborhood-based organizations.

A. All organizations recognized pursuant to this chapter shall comply with the following conditions:

1. Only properly registered not-for-profit corporations in good standing with the State of Utah may be recognized.

2. To obtain recognition any community-based organization shall submit to the City Recorder the following information:

(a) The articles of incorporation and bylaws of the community-based organization.

(i) The bylaws shall contain a provision against discrimination and encouraging representation and participation from all qualified members.

(b) A list of the officers, directors or trustees of the organization together with their addresses and the address to which any notice to the organization should be sent.

(c) No later than January 31 of each year any recognized organization seeking continuing recognition shall submit to the City Recorder any changes in the information specified in (a) and (b) above and a list of each meeting held by the organization in the preceeding year and a description of the election procedure for officers, directors or trustees of the organization.

B. The Salt Lake Association of Community Councils ("SLACC"), or its legal successor, is hereby recognized as the City-wide organization in which community councils, neighborhood councils and neighborhood associations participate by sending representation in accordance with SLACC by laws.

C. Neighborhood and community organizations. Neighborhood and community organizations representing the neighborhoods and communities defined on the list and map attached as Exhibit A to this ordinance and maintained on file with the City Recorder are hereby recognized. Membership in any neighborhood or community-based organization must be open to anyone residing within or owning property within the boundaries of the organization. The number, name or boundaries of any community or neighborhood organization may be amended by the City Council upon petition from a City Council member, or any neighborhood or community organization recognized under this chapter. All neighborhood or community organizations affected by such a petition shall hold a public hearing on the amendment request not less than 15 or more than 45 days after written notice of the request is received. Within 30 days after the hearings before the affected community or neighborhood organization the City Council shall hold a public hearing on the amendment request. The Council shall act on the amendment petition by majority vote.

D. All organizations recognized pursuant to this chapter shall comply with all provisions of the open meeting laws of the State of Utah and Salt Lake City.

Section 2.60.030 Participation.

Recognized organizations are encouraged to make recommendations to the City on all matters affecting the City or the organizations particular community or neighborhood. Recognized organizations shall be part of the City's notification process provided by Chapter 62 of Title 2.

Section 2.60.040 Open participation.

This chapter shall not preclude the participation in any public hearing by individuals or entities on their own behalf. All citizens of Salt Lake City affected by a decision to be considered by the City Council or the Mayor are encouraged and invited to participate whether through their recognized organization or individually.

Section 2.60.050 Volunteer status and partial indemnification.

Recognized organization members shall be considered volunteers and not employees, officials or officers of Salt Lake City. Recognized organizations and their officers, trustees and directors shall be indemnified by the City pursuant to the Utah Governmental Immunity Act in any civil action which may arise from determinations and recommendations made within the scope of performance of their duties under this chapter or under Chapter 62 of Title 2. This defense and indemnification obligation on behalf of the City shall be limited to only those determinations and recommendations and shall not extend to any physical activities of the recognized organizations or their members such as driving, inspecting property or other similar activities. This provision shall not be deemed a waiver of any claim for immunity from suit on behalf of the volunteer.

SECTION 2. This ordinance shall become effective on the date of its first publication.

Passed by the City Council of Salt Lake City, Utah, this 17 day of July, 1990.
